

The Hon Peter Costello at an Asialink lunch in Melbourne

Asialink is pleased to announce that it will host a lunch with Australia's Federal Treasurer, The Hon Peter Costello giving the keynote address.

As current chairman and a founder of the G-20, Peter Costello will host the meeting of Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors in Melbourne next month.

Bringing together Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors from significant industrial and emerging market economies including China, India, Indonesia and Japan, the group will discuss issues including energy security, ageing societies, and reform of the IMF as well conduct frank discussions of each nation's economies.

You are welcome to join Asialink for The Treasurer's observations in the lead up to this important event.
